

Johnny Cash Outlaw Prison Concert

Friday, April 5 -
Sunday, April 7, 2019

In 1968 Johnny Cash released the album "At Folsom Prison", an album full of songs that he recorded in front of a live audience at Folsom State Prison. Relive the thrill and music with two other country shows on this exciting tour!

Tour Details

Friday, April 5: Depart for Wheeling, WV, with rest stops and lunch on your own en route. Check-in to the hotel in Wheeling, WV. Enjoy dinner at the River City Restaurant before the evening performance of The Highwaymen & Honky Tonk Angels at The Capitol Theatre.

Saturday, April 6: Breakfast included each morning at the hotel. Embark on the Independence & Incarceration Tour, filled with humor and irony it features Wheeling's Independence Hall and a visit to WV's Gothic-looking prison. Lunch will be on your own at Wheeling Centre Market, with free time to shop and browse. After, an afternoon performance of the Johnny Cash Outlaw Prison Concert, featuring hit Johnny Cash songs such as "I Walk The Line" and "The Green, Green Grass of Home." Take part in a Costumed Convict & Cop Competition before the festive prison dinner, "The Jailbird Feast." Following dinner, travel to The Capitol Theatre for the evening performance of the Wheeling Jamboree with Marty Stuart, featuring songs such as "If There Ain't, There Ought'a Be", "Kiss Me, I'm Gone" and more!
